

“Even the smallest act of service, the simplest act of kindness, is a way to honor those we lost, a way to reclaim that spirit of unity that followed 9/11.”

—Former President Barack Obama

Remembering 9/11

This year marks the 21st anniversary of September 11, a tragedy that affected New Yorkers from every corner of the city and citizens across the globe. To honor the memory of lives lost, consider attending one of the many tributes taking place around the city or donating to support our neighbors who may still be on a journey to recovery.

Memorial & Museum

The National September 11 Memorial & Museum will hold a 21st anniversary commemoration ceremony on September 11 beginning at 8:30 a.m. on the Memorial plaza, which will remain closed to the public until 3 p.m. Family members of 9/11 victims will again gather to read aloud the names of those killed in the 9/11 attacks and in the 1993 World Trade Center bombing.

Tuesday's Children

Tuesday's Children was founded after September 11 to provide a lifetime of healing for families who have been forever changed by terrorism, military conflict, or mass violence. Programs range from mental health resources to career services, with a focus on healing old wounds. Learn more about who your donation will help.

VOICES

Voices Center for Resilience provides support and resources for families, responders and survivors. The Voices of September 11th Living Memorial Project is their online collection of photographs, mementos and memories shared by the families of those lost. Tribute in Light

Tribute in Light, the four-mile-high twin beams that echo the shape and orientation of the Twin Towers, returns again this year to commemorate lives lost and the luminous spirit of New York City. Partnering with NYC & Company, buildings throughout the city will pay tribute by displaying blue lights in solidarity.
