

FirstService
RESIDENTIAL

NYC Lifestyle

Patriot Day: Remembering 9/11

This year marks the 20th anniversary of the September 11th attacks. Our hearts go out to those affected by that solemn day, which we all will never forget.

National 9/11 Memorial & Museum

On Saturday, September 11, the National 9/11 Memorial & Museum will host a 20th Anniversary Commemoration from 8:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. The event will take place on Memorial Plaza where the Twin Towers once stood, and will be restricted to family members of 9/11 victims.

Following the ceremony, the memorial will be open to the general public until midnight. You can plan your future visit to the museum here.

Tribute in Light

The annual Tribute in Light will illuminate the skyline once again this year. In commemoration of lives lost, twin beams will be projected four miles above Manhattan. Buildings throughout the city will also light their facades and rooftops in sky blue as a collective gesture of remembrance.

9/11 Anniversary Programming

Whether you're in New York City and can attend a public memorial service or prefer to commemorate this day at home, there are plenty of ways to honor the 20th anniversary of September 11. This month, Netflix, MSNBC, The History Channel, National Geographic and local networks will air documentaries and special coverage in remembrance of the 9/11 attacks. Click here for a full list of programs.

NYC Still Rising After 20 Years

On Sunday, September 12, The Daily Show's Jon Stewart and Saturday Night Live's Pete Davidson will host a comedy show at Madison Square Garden to benefit 9/11 charities. Performers include Amy Schumer, Dave Chappelle, Jimmy Fallon, Wanda Sykes and more. Click here to get tickets to the event.